

Regional Strategic Planning

Southern Region Session

Butler, Stoddard, Scott, Mississippi, New Madrid, Dunklin and Pemiscot counties

Building the regional economy

Promoting the resources of the region

Developing a workforce equipped with 21st century skills

What should Southeast Missouri look like in five years? Ten years? Twenty years? How should our collective resources and efforts be targeted?

Southeast Missouri WIRED has just completed a comprehensive SWOT analysis of the region, and consultants from the nationally recognized economic development firm, Tamerica Management Company, will be onsite to facilitate the research-based discussion, and craft participant input into an overall regional strategy.

Please join other key regional leaders in developing a plan to maximize the economic, workforce, and natural resources of the region.

When

Tuesday, April 14
8 a.m.-noon

Where

University of Missouri
Delta Center Auditorium
Portageville

Who's Invited

Regional leaders in industry, education, community organizations, workforce and economic development

This workforce solution was funded by a grant awarded under Workforce Innovation in Regional Economic Development (WIRED) as implemented by the U.S. Department of Labor's Employment and Training Administration. The solution was created by the grantee and does not necessarily reflect the official position of the U.S. Department of Labor. The Department of Labor makes no guarantees, warranties, or assurances of any kind, express or implied, with respect to such information, including any information on linked sites and including, but not limited to, accuracy of the information or its completeness, timeliness, usefulness, adequacy, continued availability, or ownership. This solution is copyrighted by the institution that created it. Internal use by an organization and/or personal use by an individual for non-commercial purposes is permissible. All other uses require the prior authorization of the copyright owner.

Commerce Corridor of Southeast Missouri

WIRED
TALENT DRIVING PROSPERITY