"Building Your Business One Referral at a Time"

What we are about...

Team Women provides women business professionals a forum with which to build business and increase sales via the cultivation of direct business referrals through face-to-face networking. Our primary objective is to build business in a fun and professional setting through the exchange of qualified business leads. Team Women is like having dozens of highly committed sales professionals working directly for you. Meetings are held every two weeks, which we believe is optimal for strong business relationship building without levying too much pressure on one's busy schedule.
