

Business Training Through ITV

Web-Based Tools

Thanks to Interactive Television (ITV), you can attend the latest no-charge, small business training from the Douglas C. Greene Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship. Learn how valuable internet tools and applications can help your business survive and thrive in an ever-changing, hi-tech environment.

Prepare your business to do better business in the future, from the convenience of your nearest Southeast Regional Campus at either Kennett, Cape Girardeau, Malden or Sikeston.

Web-Based Tools will be offered on Monday, December 12, from 6 pm—8:30 pm. This multi-location class will offer essential information about today's smart phone and tablet applications, as well as web-based tools like "cloud" computing.

Register for Web-Based Tools soon! Attend any one of the four locations. Call the CIE at 573-651-2929 or email Glenna Ervin at gervin@semo.edu.

Douglas C. Greene
Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship

The session is open to any business owner who would like to learn more about today's technology and its implications for your business.

Contact the Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship at (573) 651-2929, or email Glenna Ervin at gervin@semo.edu to reserve your seat or go online to pre-register.

www.semo.edu/cie/training

This workforce solution was partially funded by a grant from the U.S. Department of Labor's Employment and Training Administration. The Department of Labor makes no guarantees, warranties, or assurances of any kind, express or implied, with respect to such information, including any information on linked sites and including, but not limited to, accuracy of the information or its completeness, timeliness, usefulness, adequacy, continued availability, or ownership.

---

Southeast
Missouri State University

™